

D.R. “Rick” Wyatt

Corporate Vice President and Treasurer

D.R. “Rick” Wyatt is corporate vice president and treasurer for Huntington Ingalls Industries (HII). Named to this position in 2011, Wyatt is responsible for banking and credit, corporate finance, cash forecasting and management, insurance and risk management, mergers and acquisitions, investments and trusts, financings, capital structure, capital markets interface, rating agency relationships, short-term investments, and pension asset management.

Wyatt joined Newport News Shipbuilding in 1982 and has held various positions in the financial area of the company, including cost estimating, cost control, accounting, financial analysis and government accounting. Prior to being appointed treasurer of HII, he served as director of business management, treasurer and assistant treasurer of Newport News Shipbuilding, and manager of finance. Wyatt earned a bachelor’s degree in economics from Hampden-Sydney College and an MBA from Old Dominion University.

Huntington Ingalls Industries (HII) designs, builds and maintains nuclear and non-nuclear ships for the U.S. Navy and Coast Guard and provides after-market services for military ships around the globe. For more than a century, HII has built more ships in more ship classes than any other U.S. naval shipbuilder at its Newport News Shipbuilding and Ingalls Shipbuilding divisions. Employing about 37,000 in Virginia, Mississippi, Louisiana and California, HII also provides a wide variety of products and services to the commercial energy industry and other government customers, including the Department of Energy.
