Biography – Mr. David Ingram – President, Capital TechSearch Inc.

Mr. Ingram started his first business while in intermediate school and sold it while attending college. He spent the next 15 years working his way through corporate America running sales teams for publicly traded as well as start-up companies. Dave started Capital TechSearch in 2001 to help his clients attract and retain the best talent available. Capital TechSearch has been recognized 4 times as a member of the prestigious Inc 5000 fastest growing companies in America. Additionally, in 2017 Capital TechSearch was recognized as one of the top 250 Executive Search Firms in America by Forbes Magazine. This year, Dave founded a new software company based in Richmond named Visual Workforce.

David is a native of Northern Virginia, graduated from Hampden-Sydney College, and is a guest lecturer at Virginia Commonwealth University, the University of Richmond and East Carolina University in Greenville, North Carolina, and he loves to share his experiences running businesses.

Dave and his family moved to Richmond in 2003 to raise their 3 year old twin boys. Fast forward to 2017, with 18 year old senior boys looking at colleges, a 12 year old daughter and 2 yellow Labs, life looks different, and exciting.
